

OREGON SOCIETY OF ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT

2017 OSAM Awards Program

Recognizing the exceptional work of association professionals

Do you know someone worthy of recognition for their work in association management?

Perhaps someone produced an exceptional program, delivered stellar service, or something else unique to your organization and members' needs?

Only you know the individuals furthering our unique association world, so we need your help! Please take a moment to nominate a colleague for the great work they are doing.

Award recipients will be recognized at the 2017 OSAM Annual Conference on Wednesday, December 6.

AWARD CATEGORIES

V.A. McNeil Executive Leadership Award

Named after the Society's first president in 1968, this award acknowledges an association CEO's exceptional leadership and service to the Oregon Society of Association Management and the association management community. This Society member demonstrates significant dedication and commitment.

Emerging Leader Award

Presented to a non-CEO association member this award acknowledges an individual who demonstrates professional growth and achievement within their own association. This award also recognizes the recipient's high level of personal pride and commitment to excel in the association management profession.

Allied Leader Award

Presented to an individual allied member who has made significant contributions of time, resources, and/or expertise in order to improve and enhance the Society. This award recognizes exceptional initiative and involvement that strengthens the association management profession.

Association Achievement Award

(Self-Nominations Gladly Accepted)

Presented to a member association that has done exceptional work in one or more areas including but not limited to: enhanced member benefits, management practices, new programs, significant staff accomplishments, outstanding member services, services to the general community, fiscal management, membership growth, or any other project that has a positive impact on the organization and its members.

Nominations are due by Friday, November 10.

Submit your nominations at osam.org.

Thank you for your support of this important OSAM program!
